CLASS 6

Theme: Save the Stripes - Celebrating 50 years of Project Tiger

Project Tiger was launched in India on April 1, 1973, to promote tiger conservation and has successfully completed 50 years. It was launched with the aim to conserve and protect tigers as their numbers had reduced due to constant poaching and hunting.

Project Tiger has been successful in bringing tigers back from the brink of extinction. From turning hunting grounds to Tiger Reserves, India has shown its magic of conserving wildlife in general.
