Example

Idiom: Dressed to the nines

Meaning: Wearing nice clothes for a special occasion.

Sentence: Everyone was dressed to the nines for the marriage.

(Do your work in A4 size sheets)

- Do writing practice daily to improve your handwriting.
- Read story books daily.

MATHS:

FASHION AND MATHEMATICS

Activity: Rita is opening the cloth store for women in Mumbai. She wants to decide which types of clothing should be kept in the store most. Let us help her

Collect information about 30 women about their choice of clothing:

- Sari and wrapped garments.
- Salwar Kameez.
- Churidars.
- Lehenga Choli (skirt and blouse)
- Western clothing.

1. Collect the data and arrange in tabular form:

Type of clothing	No. of Women

2. Which clothing is most liked by women?

3. Which clothing is least liked by women?

4. How many women prefer traditional clothing?

5. How many women prefer Sari and wrapped garments?

SCIENCE:

Make a beautiful creative album on fashion dresses. Collect and stick pictures of National dresses of any five countries of your choice on A-4 size coloured chart paper. Name the dress and its country also.
