- Remarks if any: Our leaders are our source of inspiration. Through their words and actions, they show us the path of righteousness and integrity. The students portrayed their favourite leaders in a creative manner and mentioned how they derived their motivation from them.
- Lord Ganesha, the God of Wisdom was welcomed by students in a creative manner. They made Ganesha idols with colourful clay and spoke about how they would welcome Lord Ganesha in their homes.
- Loud and clear reading is a skill that needs regular practice. The students were made to read storybooks loudly with proper expression and intonation. The activity helped students learn and follow the nuances of good reading.
