Celebration of the Handloom Day – Dhaarniya Shilp

On 7th August 2024, 12th grade Humanities students of Bal Bharati Public School, Navi Mumbai organised an event named "धारणीय शिल्प" in the school auditorium to celebrate the 10th National Handloom Day.

In the world where consumers prefer fast fashion, the students decided to promote handlooms of India with special emphasis on Handlooms of Varanasi, Maharashtra and Khadi Gram Udyog. Adhering to the theme of 2024, we promoted sustainability and innovation through the same.

Highlighting features of the event were a fashion show and exhibition to captivate the young consumers and instil the concept of "Handlooms as a wearable craft" in them.

In conclusion, The students of Bal Bharati Public School were successful in the aim of promoting and embracing handlooms, also preserving them for the future generations to come.
