Dr Prajakta Ekhar (Batch 2012-2013)

MBBS, RUSSIA

I have spent 95% of my schooling from BBPS, Navi Mumbai. Which is why, talking about BBPS Navi Mumbai, makes me overwhelmed with gratitude and nostalgia. This school has been the foundation to who I am today. A place where I have not only learned academics but also invaluable life lessons, that have shaped me into the person I am today. This institution has been more than just a school; it has been a second home; it's given me a family I will cherish for life.

The extremely talented teachers and staff have always gone above and beyond, fostering an environment where students are encouraged to explore their passions and challenge themselves academically and at the same time help them stand strong against the tides of life. They have not only imparted knowledge but have also instilled in me the values of hard work, integrity, and resilience.

All those extracurricular activities (which were made so fun that nobody tried to run away from them)—from sports and arts to clubs and community service—has helped me develop not just as a student, but helped me develop a personality I know no other place could ever help polish.

The encouraging attitude of our very warm and beautiful principle and teachers, for individual non-academic talents, has helped built the much-needed self-confidence and till date I am grateful for the support.

The friendships I've formed here are some of the most cherished relationships of my life. Thank you, BBPS, for being the most integral part of my life and for shaping not just my education, but my personality and character. I am proud to be an alumnus and will carry the lessons learned here into my future endeavours.
