Report on Baking Festival

Date: 3rd February 2025

Class: 9

On 3rd February 2025, Bal Bharati Public School, Navi Mumbai hosted an exciting Baking Festival for the students of class 9. The event was inaugurated by the Vice Principal, Ms. Malvika Sengupta and the Headmistress, Ms. Kanchan Desai.

The students delved into the baked delicacies from different corners of the world, including Wales, Scotland, France, and Egypt. Through their meticulous research, they prepared a PowerPoint presentation exploring the origin of baking, various baked delicacies, and the nutritional value of baking.

The festival featured an enriching session led by Ms. Suhani Hatrote who provided valuable insights on building a baking business and shared the intricate details of baking. The students were captivated by her expertise and advice.

During the festival, the students showcased an impressive array of baked delicacies, including cupcakes, cheesecakes, muffins, brownies, pizza, and pasta. They added a fun twist to the event with innovative culinary games that heightened the festive spirit.

Not only did the students exhibit their baking talents, but they also demonstrated their creativity by decorating their classrooms and promoting their displays through social media reels and templates.

The well-organized event was absolutely impressive earning appreciation from school authorities and teaching staff alike. This festival not only provided a platform for the students to showcase their baking skills but also enriched their knowledge and understanding of baking from a global perspective.
